WALTER SORY
1906-1985

DAYTON, Ohio, May 30, 1985 -- Walter Sory, assistant professor of languages at the University of Dayton from 1957 until 1972, died Tuesday, May 28, at Kettering Memorial Hospital. He was 78.

Sory was born, raised, and educated in Poland. He fled from Poland to West Germany in 1944 and came to the United States in 1952. In 1957, he became a United States citizen.

Sory taught for 16 years in Poland and West Germany. He taught German and Latin. In 1954, he was licensed to teach in the United States. He later acquired a knowledge of Russian.

At the University of Dayton, Sory taught German and was a member of the American Association of Teachers of German, the American Association of Slavic and East European Languages, and the Dayton Council on World Affairs.

Sory is survived by his wife, Senta, of Centerville. There will be no funeral services.
